B E C O M E  A . . .  W O R D W I Z A R D
1. Why can’t Cinderella play soccer?

2. How did Jack know how many beans his cow was worth?

3. How does a garden fairy greet her flowers in the garden?

4. What do you call a pretty girl with a broom?

5. What do you call a story about the girl who steals from the rich and gives it all to Granny?

6. What eats more tacos than one dragon?

7. What does a glamacorn wish for?

8. Why can’t dragons play ice hockey?

9. Why are both dragons and unicorns good storytellers?

10. Did Humpty Dumpty have a good summer?

Once-Upon-A-Joke Challenge

See if these fairy-tale inspired jokes make you or a friend chuckle!

1. Yes, but he had a terrible fall!
2. They all have tails.
3. When’s up, bud?
4. Sweeping beauty.
5. Little Red Robin Hood
6. Two dragons
7. More glitter
8. They确实 fire the ice melts.
9. Yes, but he had a terrible fall!
10. Because she’s always running
There's a one-story house where everything is yellow. The walls are yellow. The doors are yellow. Even all the furniture is yellow. The house has yellow beds and yellow couches. What color are the stairs?

We already tried some riddles in BECOME A TREASURE HUNTER. Can you try some more?

RIDDLE-ME-THE CHALLENGE

What is full of holes but still holds water?

What is so fragile that saying its name breaks it?

What has hands, but can't clap?

What is always in front of you but can't be seen?

I am often following you and copying your every move. Yet you can never touch me or catch me. What am I?

Ready for the answers?

1. House
2. Silence
3. Future
4. A sponge
5. Your voice
6. A clock
7. Your shadow
Fairy Bread
By Robert Louis Stevenson
Come up here, O dusty feet!
Here is fairy bread to eat.
Here in my retiring room,
Children, you may dine
On the golden smell of broom
And the shade of pine;
And when you have eaten well,
Fairy stories hear and tell.

At the Sea-Side
By Robert Louis Stevenson
When I was down beside the sea
A wooden spade they gave to me
To dig the sandy shore.
My holes were empty like a cup.
In every hole the sea came up
Till it could come no more.

The Land of Nod
By Robert Louis Stevenson
From breakfast on through all the day
At home among my friends I stay,
But every night I go abroad
Afar into the land of Nod.
All by myself I have to go,
With none to tell me what to do —
All alone beside the streams
And up the mountain-sides of dreams.
The strangest things are there for me,
Both things to eat and things to see,
And many frightening sights abroad
Till morning in the land of Nod.
Try as I like to find the way,
I never can get back by day,
Nor can remember plain and clear
The curious music that I hear.

MEMORY
Challenge
Did you know memorizing and reciting poetry has magical benefits for your brain? Try learning one or more of these Robert Louis Stevenson poems by heart and sharing it with someone you know.

Ready for more?
Try these cool websites:
childrens.poetryarchive.org
mensaforkids.org/read/a-year-of-living-poetically
Down:
1. When someone cast a spell over another they are sometimes put under _______.
4. These rascal rogues often enjoy hunting and hiding treasure
5. This type of person is known for learning their magic at a challenging school.
7. A tiny elfin creature who can be often found in gardens.

Across:
2. Creature that breathes fire and takes flight.
3. This item might be found in a magical merchant's shop and holds three wishes.
6. This person often wears metal armor and goes on quests.
8. Once upon a time, a humble boy climbed a beanstalk to discover a castle in the ________.
9. A type of journey that often includes a search for an important object or a grand epiphany.
A TREASURE HUNT STORY

Once there was a ___________ and ______ ______ who wanted, adjective adjective boy/girl more than anything in the ____________, to find the lost Magical specific place

_________ _______________. It was said the one who found this most color name of something you find in a bathroom treasured item, would gain the power to _______________________. name a superpower

The ambitious adventurer traveled far and wide -_________ing across verb

_________-shaped lands, _________ing through _________ cities, and name of verb adjective breakfast food

over the most tumultuous ____________. The adventurer was noun

even challenged by the evil ___________ de la ____________ to a name of animal name of a disgusting food battle of ____________, where they _________ and ____________. name of something you'd see on a playground verb verb

At last, though, the weary adventurer discovered the mysterious

Cave of ____________, where the Magical ________________ repeat name of treasure was said to be. But what happened once the brave adventurer went into the cave? Was the treasure found? Or was there an entirely new journey waiting to begin? The choice is yours. YOU write the story.